

American Baptist Women's Ministries

In John 5:6, Jesus asks the question, "Do you want to be made whole?" Wholeness is a communal pursuit that demands a deep and personal relationship with God. As St. Augustine teaches, "our hearts will be restless until we find our rest in God." Sisters Seeking Wholeness is American Baptist Women's Ministries' (ABWM) effort to address the spiritual and social issues that leave women, young women, and girls feeling broken. We know that in order to be fruitful in any season of life like the tree described in Jeremiah 17:8, we must ensure that we are spiritually rooted in Jesus Christ. For this reason, ABWM's theme for 2019-2021 is Sisters Seeking Wholeness; ABWM is committed to fostering spaces and opportunities that will encourage women to deepen their relationship with God and equip them with practical tools that will improve the interior and exterior areas of their lives.

Resources for individual study, small groups, leadership development, and theme-related programming are available at www.abwomensministries.org.

American Baptist Women's Ministries is Christ-centered, committed to encourage and empower women and girls to serve God.